

IPADE
BUSINESS SCHOOL
UNIVERSIDAD PANAMERICANA

Do you have a master's degree and business experience?

Would you like to study a doctoral program and influence the performance and results of companies through your knowledge and experience?

Get to know IPADE and join our faculty!

- As a Faculty member at IPADE, you will contribute to the transformation of organizations and society by training leaders with critical thinking, global vision, social responsibility and Christian values.
- Through a humanistic and international approach, you will be able to understand, from different perspectives, the challenges faced by leaders and help participants develop their managerial skills and make better decisions.
- Our Faculty is made up of women and men with the highest academic qualifications, professional business experience, interaction with the business world and dedication to keeping up to date on global trends in leadership and management.
- By becoming a member of IPADE, you join the exclusive community of business schools with the three most important quality accreditations.

As professors, we have the role of accompanying the arduous process that leaders go through and the opportunity to leave a mark on people at the head of organizations.
